Residence Life Staff

The Residence Life staff is here to answer your questions and assist you in making on campus living safe and comfortable. We are here to provide you with growth and development opportunities as you pursue your degree.

1. Resident Assistants (RAs)

A team of RAs resides in each community with Residence Life. Your RA can be one of the most important people you will interact with at UIS. RAs are experienced residents and students who act as a community builder, role model, problem solver, helper, and advocate. The RA's role is to provide support for your academic success and to be a mentor for you while living on-campus with Residence Life.

An RA is on call (RAOC) every night to support your residential community. They can assist you with noise complaints, lock-outs, fire alarms, or dealing with roommate conflicts. To contact the RA on call, please contact one of the following:

- Lincoln Residence Hall RA On-Call (217) 306-2903
- Founders Residence Hall RA On-Call (217) 306-2905
- West Campus Townhouses RA On-Call (217) 306-2907
- East Campus Apartments RA On-Call (217) 306-2909
- If the RAOC cannot be reached at the numbers listed above, please contact the RAOC via the UIS Police Department at the non-emergency number 206-6690; or during regular business hours by calling the Residence Life Office at (217) 206-6190.

2. Resident Directors

Resident Directors (RDs) are full-time professional staff members who reside in Lincoln and Founders Residence Halls, the West Campus Townhomes, and the East Campus Apartments. Resident Director responsibilities include community development, training and supervision of RA staff, intervention in behavioral disturbances, support during emotional crises, and student support and special projects to aid individual student development. Please don't hesitate to set up an appointment with your RD if you have questions or concerns about your living environment - or if you just want to visit!

Community Living

Being a part of a community is a wonderful experience and can provide you with lifelong friends. Living in a community also comes with a variety of responsibilities. The Department of Residence Life encourages community building and positive developmental opportunities.

1. The Rights of the Resident

The following list of rights are what you, your roommates, your suitemates and your neighbors should consider when resolving disputes:

- The right to expect roommate(s) will respect one's personal belongings.
- The right to a clean environment in which to live.
- The right to free access to one's room and facilities without pressure from a roommate.
- The right to privacy.

- The right to have guests with the expectation of guests to respect the rights of the host's roommate and other residents of the floor and building.
- The right to confront any situation in which they feel their rights are taken away.
- The right to be free of fear and intimidation, physical and emotional.
- The right to expect reasonable cooperation in the use of shared appliances.

2. Roommate Agreements

All residents are expected to complete a roommate agreement form with their roommate(s) at the beginning of the semester, and at each time a roommate switch occurs. These forms establish an open line of communication between roommates and allow you to talk through expectations of each other. Should a roommate disagreement ever come up throughout the year, Residence Life staff will use the Roommate Agreement Form to help mediating a conversation among roommates and work toward achieving a resolution to the conflict.

3. Conflict and Mediation

Residents are expected to respect and openly communicate with their roommates/suitemates/neighbors. The best way to avoid a conflict is to speak openly, honestly, directly, and immediately to the person(s) involved. Even if roommates are friends, disagreements can happen. Communication is the best way to resolve differences. We recommend using the following ladder of communication.

1. Complete the Roommate Contract with your roommate/suitemate. This should be done in the first week after you move in.
2. If you have issues with your roommate, it is vital that you speak with your roommate immediately about your concerns, so you may discuss or modify the Roommate/Suitemate Contract.
3. If completing or modifying your roommate contract, or speaking with your roommate does not alleviate the concern, you should contact your RA for a mediation meeting with your roommate/suitemate(s).
4. If none of the above resolution possibilities solve the problem, you and your roommate/suitemate(s) will be mandated to meet with the Resident Director together, to develop a final solution to the problem.

The Department of Residence Life expects you to attempt to talk to your roommates, suitemates and neighbors to resolve conflicts and deal with issues and concerns first. We are happy to mediate a conflict if the initial conversation does not serve effective. Please note if a relationship ends with one party moving away, it is usually the reporting party whom moves spaces. If the situation is entirely an interpersonal problem, the Department of Residence Life will not allow a resident to force out another. Room Reassignment requests must be filed with the area RD.

4. Noise

Noise levels in and around our communities are expected to be moderate and conducive to a positive academic learning environment. Residents have a right to sleep and study free from undue interference in their living spaces. Roommates, suitemates and neighbors should reach a general agreement about acceptable noise levels to prevent conflict. If you are having difficulty with a suitemate or neighbors regarding noise, please attempt to talk to all suitemates and/or neighbors and resolve the problem. If you have further problems, you should contact the RA on-call.

Communication and Internet Services

The Department of Residence Life strives to provide excellent service to our students. Please contact your RD if you have questions about the amenities and services listed below.

Communication

The Department of Residence Life and the University will only contact you via your UIS email account. The Residence Life Office delivers important information to your student email account regarding entries, emergencies, packages, events and activities. Be sure to check your UIS email regularly to stay up-to-date on important announcements related to your UIS experience.

Internet Connections and Email

Internet service is part of each student's housing fees. Every bedroom on campus is wired for connection to the Campus Data Network, additionally UISWiFi is accessible in all units. Residents who wish to access the internet using hard line connections must provide their own Ethernet cable. UISWiFi is available to anyone who has a valid UIS Network ID.

Getting Involved: Resident Housing Association (RHA)

RHA is a student organization led by residents of our communities. RHA consists of an elected board, area Community Councils, and a General Assembly. Any residents who would like to get involved and help plan programs; become a student leader; or serve as an advocate for student ideas, feedback and concerns is asked to participate. Your RA can tell you how!

Personal Well-Being

1. Missing Persons

If you do not see your roommate for an unusual length of time and become concerned, please contact your RA, the RAOC, your RD or the Residence Life Office at (217) 206-6190. Professional Residence Life Staff will investigate and contact parents, emergency contacts, and police as necessary.

2. Students with Disabilities

If you have particular needs for your living environment, please contact the Office of Disability Services at ODS@uis.edu. Accessible and/or adaptable living conditions are available in every community and all fire alarm systems have both audio and visual alarm signals. Residents are strongly encouraged to disclose their need at the time of application or upon origination of need in order to be properly assigned to the most appropriate space. Requests for accommodations will be verified through the Office of Disability Services and then Residence Life will make reasonable accommodations.

3. Gender Inclusive Housing

The Department of Residence Life is committed to providing a safe and comfortable living environment for all students, including those whose gender identity and/or expression differs from the sex assigned to them at birth. Residence Life respects and affirms a student's gender identity and/or expression, prioritizes our student's physical and emotional safety, and will find the best match between the student's needs and the options available. Students seeking additional support in the University environment should contact the Office of Gender and Sexuality Student Services. When Gender Inclusive Housing is needed, please follow the specific instructions listed on the Residence Life Gender Inclusive Housing website.

Maintenance Services

Students are responsible for the cleaning of their own private bathrooms as well as purchasing their own cleaning supplies. Recommended Maintenance and Cleaning Supplies for which each student should plan with their roommate in purchasing:

- Toilet Plunger (with flange, not a flat-bottom plunger for sinks) - NO Air plungers
- Toilet Bowl Brush & Cleaner
- Floor Cleaners such as Vacuums, Brooms & Dust Pan, Mops & Bucket
- Light Bulbs for personal items that require them.
- Glass cleaner, Multi-Surface cleaner, Oven cleaner, and Tile Floor Cleaner
- Reusable, Microfiber Cleaning Cloths, Sponges, Rags/Towels, and Scrub Brushes
- Gloves, Trash Bags, and Trash Can

1. Maintenance Service Requests (Work Orders)

Residents are not allowed to make their own repairs to the units, buildings, furniture, or fixtures owned by the university and all maintenance requests should be reported to the Department of Residence Life using the MaxPanda work order submission portal at go.uis.edu/wo. Specific instructions for entering work orders are on the Department of Residence Life website and can also be obtained by contacting the central office of Residence Life. Always give your specific location and a detailed description of the problem. Residents are responsible for entering their own work orders, to best communicate the specific issue and for future communications about the reported issue.

Not all items inside your residency will be handled by one person. Plumbers do not handle electrical work and carpenters do not handle plumbing issues so, please submit individual work orders for each maintenance issue you may have.

Work order requests are prioritized on a daily basis and assigned to trades staff. As the number of requests received on a daily basis can vary, response time and correction will also vary. There are times when an item may take longer to correct than UIS Residence Life would like. This can be due to limited availability of staff, an urgent issue arising on campus pulling staff away from a work order item or the need to coordinate multiple trades to address a problem. Routine maintenance service is provided to residents without charge unless repairs and/or damages are the direct result of resident (or their guest's) negligence or irresponsible behavior. No charges will be issued for repairs which arise from ordinary wear and tear. Charges for repairs to damages due to negligence, failure to report issues, and/or vandalism will include labor, materials and an administrative handling fee.

Residence Life maintenance personnel work Monday-Friday 8:00am to 4:00pm except designated state and federal holidays or official University closures. Emergency maintenance issues should be reported directly to the Residence Life Central Office (6-6190) or by calling the Resident Assistant On Call (RAOC) in your area. Emergency situations will take precedence over minor or routine problems. If emergency maintenance problems arise when maintenance personnel are not available, the RAOC will assess your problem and determine if an immediate solution needs to be applied. The RAOC will contact appropriate staff to resolve the problem.

Maintenance emergencies are typically defined as, but not limited to: No electrical power in the entire room, apartment or townhouse; No water service in the entire building, apartment or townhouse; No heat in the entire building, apartment or townhouse when the outside temperature is below 50 degrees Fahrenheit (as reported by the Weather Channel for the 62703 area); No air conditioning in the entire building, apartment or townhouse when the outside temperature is above 90 degrees Fahrenheit (as reported by the Weather Channel for the 62703 area); Flowing water from broken pipes causing area(s) to be flooded; Toilet clog and/or backup (and cannot be cleared by plunging) when no other toilet is available; Other plumbing related disasters; The existence of an unsafe condition such as electric shock hazard or broken window with missing glass.

Residents are not permitted to make alterations to the apartment that include but are not limited to painting, wallpapering, installing wall mounted shelving/tv stands, installing satellite dishes, adding/changing locks, removing doors, and/or the storage off-site of university owned furniture.

2. Light Bulbs

Should your light bulb burn out in our light fixtures from normal use, submit a work order as instructed in the previous section for your light bulb to be replaced and maintenance staff will take care of this. Always give the specific location and a detailed description of the problem. The Residence Life Office maintenance staff does not change lights in student owned lamps or equipment.

3. Window Screens

Window screens are a safety, security and pest control device. Do not remove your screens except to clean them. If you need assistance to replace them, please report your need as a work order as instructed in the previous section. Do not use your windows as means of entry and exit except during an emergency situation. Damaged screens and/or windows will be assessed to the occupants who are assigned to the space.

4. Plumbing Items

Problems may occur if the sink, commode, or bathtub is used improperly. It is highly recommended to avoid clogs, slow drainage and/or damage, to follow these basic rules of use:

- DO NOT flush sanitary wipes, baby wipes, and/or flushable wipes.
- DO NOT flush feminine hygiene products (regardless if it is dissolvable).
- DO NOT flush items other than toilet paper and bodily waste/fluids.
- DO NOT place large food particles/items in the garbage disposal.
- DO NOT use the garbage disposal without running water at the same time.
- DO NOT place non-food items in the garbage disposal.
- DO NOT pour grease, oil, sand, dirt or rocks down any drain or toilet.
- DO NOT empty fish tank gravel down sink/tub drains or the toilet.
- DO NOT use drain cleaning products (such as Draino) to unclog on your own.
- DO NOT use bowl coloring and cleaning agents (such as TidyBowl).
- DO NOT use dish washing liquid in the dishwasher; use dish detergent.
- DO NOT continue to flush a toilet which is already clogged.
- DO NOT attempt to administer your own plumbing solution outside of a plunger.

If your sink, tub, or toilet becomes clogged and you are not able to “clear” the problem, please report the issue using the MaxPanda work order portal. Any plumbing issue found where there was vandalism, neglect, or misuse may incur a charge. Please dispose of trash related items in your waste cans as the drains in your apartment are not substitutes for bulk waste removal.

Personal Safety and Your Living Space

1. Stolen Property

The Office of Residence Life staff cannot guarantee the safe keeping of your valuables. The University is not responsible for any of your property that is lost or stolen. Please put away valuables and keep your door locked while you are out. If theft does occur, contact your RA and the UIS Police (217) 206-6690 to file reports.

2. Renter’s Insurance

The University assumes no responsibility for the loss or damage of resident’s possessions in University Housing and the university cannot replace or repay residents for fire/water damage, electrical irregularities, appliance failures, etc. You are, therefore, encouraged to consider purchasing renter’s insurance, particularly if you will be bringing your own furniture or expensive appliances such as a computer, TV or stereo. Renters insurance is widely available and is fairly inexpensive. The Residence Life Office has information on a renter’s insurance program specifically for students. Students covered under their parent’s homeowner’s insurance may not need renter’s insurance. We strongly suggest that you check with your insurance agent to find out if you are covered while living on campus.

3. Code Blue Phones

Code blue phones located throughout campus add to the coverage provided by the UIS Police. These provide immediate direct access to campus police dispatchers, and can be used for all legitimate contact with the police

4. Fire Extinguishers and Other Fire-Safety Devices

Every residence is equipped with fire extinguishers. Fire extinguishers should be used only for their intended purpose and should not be removed from their assigned location. Residents should check their fire extinguisher occasionally to ensure that it is properly charged. Inadequately charged fire extinguishers should be reported as work orders.

Tampering with fire safety extinguishers, smoke detectors, or other fire-safety devices is considered a direct violation of the Housing Terms and Conditions that will lead to disciplinary action that may include suspension, expulsion, a fine, and applicable repair charges. Please note also that individuals who cause false fire alarms are subject to criminal penalties, as well as University disciplinary action that may include suspension, expulsion, a fine, and repair charges.

6. Contagious Disease and Other Personal Health Issues

Residents who become infected with an infectious or contagious disease that is deemed hazardous to other campus residents may be quarantined to their room or temporarily removed from campus housing until the Residence Life Administration receives proper authorization that it is no longer hazardous for that resident to return to living in campus housing.

Department of Residence Life: Procedures and Processes

(Revised August 2023)

1. Moving in and Moving out

Students moving into the Residence Halls during Fall Move-In will first check in to let Residence Life staff know that they have arrived and are ready to move in. Students will have access to unpack their vehicle from the parking lot. Assistance by the welcome crew will be available to help during move in. Instructions for getting assistance will be given during the check in process. Students will receive an inventory form to mark the condition of their space and furnishings at move in, as well as key information for your room and mailbox. Students will meet new roommates, housemates, or suitemates.

The Residence Life Office prepares for new residents by thoroughly cleaning the personal living space assigned to the new resident. When moving in, residents should check and document their living units thoroughly for damages, missing items (i.e., window screens, fire extinguishers), or unclean areas. If you find any damages or something that needs attention soon after your check-in, please report it as a work order via the Maxpanda. The problem will be corrected as soon as possible. Your initial inventory form must be completed in the first 24 hours after you have been in the space, but work orders are welcome at any point throughout the year.

2. Room Reassignments

Each semester, there is a Housing Freeze in place for the first three weeks of the semester in which no Room Reassignment Requests are honored. This allows Residence Life to determine which spaces have openings due to no show students and/or facilities concerns. After the Housing Freeze has ended, residents who wish to move into another campus space must begin their request in writing to their area RD via email found on the website. Requests are approved at the discretion of the RD or Residence Life Administration. Approval of such requests depends upon the situation at hand. Residents who are involved in a roommate dispute will be encouraged to go through a mediation process involving their RA before a reassignment will be considered.

If the University determines that a reassignment is necessary due to personal conflicts between roommates or for medical reasons, the University may set behavioral conditions appropriate for the person(s) involved in order for them to remain in student housing. Room reassignment fees may be assessed in cases of a move due to misconduct or problematic behavior. An administrative room reassignment fee may be assessed. Please consult your RD about possible charges.

3. Vacant Spaces

If your roommate moves out during the school year, you should plan on being assigned a new roommate at any time. Your belongings should be confined to your personal space and personal allotment of common space. Do not use a vacant bedroom for other uses, such as to host guests or for storage. Once these areas (including associated bathrooms) are cleaned by Residence Life personnel, the continuing residents will be charged for the "Full Cleaning of Area" of rooms that have been opened.

Serious infractions could result in financial penalty for the additional rooms being occupied to the continuing residents' accounts. Residents who attempt to discourage someone from moving in with them will be subject to disciplinary action which could include additional charges for lost revenue.

4. Residence Hall Singles Buyout

Opportunities for singles buy-out will be coordinated through the RD based on availability. If you were assigned to a double room but did not have a roommate assigned, you may have the option to buy out the other half of the room, paying the increased fee for a private room (typically prorated). This is handled on a case-by-case basis.

5. Space Consolidations

Situations may arise that necessitate moving or consolidating residents to accommodate the needs of the residents and/or the Department of Residence Life. Advanced notice will be given to students asked to consolidate. Due to circumstances surrounding the consolidation, advanced notice may only be 24 hours.

6. Break Closings

The Residence Halls will be closed for Winter Break, Spring Break, and Summer Break; you can find these dates on the Academic Calendar or on the Residence Life Website. Residence Halls will close after the last day of university classes or finals before the break (typically Saturdays at 12 noon).

Any student requesting to stay for any portion of a break must have a housing contract on file for the future semester (fall) or current semester (spring). The apartments and townhouses do not close for Winter or Spring Breaks. We encourage students to plan their breaks well in advance of the closing date. As breaks approach, your RD will email you additional information related to your closing and/or checkouts.

7. Moving Out

Residents must complete a proper check-out at the time they vacate any student housing unit and any time they move into a different space. To complete a check-out, the resident must do the following:

- Move all personal possessions from the unit prior to the scheduled check-out time. Empty your mailbox before coming to the checkout. Clean and tidy your living space.
- Be present at the scheduled check-out time for a complete inventory of the living unit and of its condition, unless an express checkout is arranged.
- Return all keys issued to you.
- Complete a Change of Address Form, which can be filled out online via the USPS website for by filling out a paper form at any of our three desks.
- If you choose to complete an “Express Checkout”, you must get an envelope from the Residence Life Office or your building’s front desk and leave your keys as well as your forwarding information in the envelope. When you do an Express, a staff member will not attend your checkout.

Please note, checking out of your room/apartment during the semester does not withdraw you from classes, from your Housing contract, or from the University and you must ensure to complete each of those processes separately. Likewise, if you withdraw from the University, you must contact the Residence Life Office, complete a contract cancellation request form, and complete a checkout to properly break your Housing contract.

8. Assessing Damages Charges

Residents may not repair or attempt to fix broken or malfunctioning university fixtures, furniture, equipment, and/or the premises belonging to the university. Instead they must use the work order system to report it. If anything in your room needs repair, please refer to the Maintenance section.

If we must paint, fix, repair or replace our property because of a resident’s negligence, misuse, or actions, then we will charge that resident for our time, materials and labor to bring our property back to good condition. At the time of move-in, you should place any concerns about your room, apartment, provided appliances, furniture, etc... on the room condition report and return it on time. Failure to do so may result in being charged incorrectly for an issue not previously reported to maintenance.

The University pays for damages that occur through normal wear and tear; you are charged for any additional damages. Financial assessments for replacement or repair of items damaged are based on repair and replacement costs (including labor costs) plus administrative fees. Residents may forfeit deposits and incur additional charges based on damages incurred through their contract period.

Maintenance and repairs will be completed based on the Housing schedule and occupancy of the apartment; this may occur at a future time when deferred maintenance can be completed.

Scheduled maintenance walks will be performed in every unit twice a semester (Fall, Spring, and Summer) to assess the condition of the unit and belongings. These will be scheduled and announced by email.

9. Property Abandonment

Any property that is left in a housing unit after contract completion, termination, or cancellation will be classified as “abandoned property”. Residents will be charged based on the number and size of items abandoned. Residence Life will hold items for 10 days before disposal of said items. After the 10 days have expired, Residence Life is not responsible for storage or return of any abandoned items.

10. Improper Check-Outs

If any of the above details are incomplete, the Residence Life Office will charge you a $50.00 Improper Checkout Fee.

Student Conduct Process

1. Student Conduct Process

Should you be found responsible for violating any University or Residence Life policies, you will be notified via email and will be required to attend a conduct meeting with an appointed hearing officer (usually your Resident Director). Students are offered the right of due process through an educational hearing process which includes an administrative hearing, one level of appeal, and possible sanctions. University campus housing reserves the right to apply educational or monetary sanctions to students who are found responsible for policy violations at the completion of their judicial due process. Educational sanctions may be in the form of community service, online modules, educational papers, peer to peer education, etc. Students that do not complete the sanctions applied to them will be called to another hearing, referred to the Dean of Students’ Office, or may have additional sanctions applied. As part of each student’s due process, we offer appeals following administrative conduct hearings.

2. Incident Reporting

Violations that compromise the safety and security of the living environment, result in damages, or that are disrespectful or indecent may be documented in an Incident Report and considered for disciplinary action. Any student or resident may document a complaint against a resident based on an alleged violation of the Department of Residence Life or institutional policy by submitting an Incident Report. Incident Reports must be filed with the RD in the area where the incident occurred.

Upon receiving an Incident Report, the RD will contact the resident to discuss the incident in a conduct meeting. Confidentiality is held to the highest regard when addressing resident complaints and incident reports.

3. Student Code of Conduct

Residence Life has the right to review student Code of Conduct issues, and students should familiarize themselves with them. The UIS Student Handbook can be viewed here.

Community Standards Processes

1. Cleaning and Safety Inspections

Cleaning and Safety inspections will occur at least once during each term. Each semester, the Department of Residence Life is required to perform an inspection of the health, welfare, and safety situation in every living unit. Every room of every residential space is entered during this inspection by a team of the area RA and the RD. Residents will be provided with a written copy of the inspection.

a. The following items will be examined for compliance:

- i. Clean facilities including, but not limited to kitchen, bathrooms, bedrooms, and common areas; All safety mechanisms, including smoke and particle detectors; Garbage properly stored; Food items are properly sealed and stored; No obstructions of any kind in front of vents and boiler rooms; All residents of the unit are responsible for the conditions of common areas.

2. Staff Entry

The University reserves the right to enter your living unit without notice for purposes of inspections, maintenance, repair, or alteration of University property. The intended entry will be communicated prior to entering the room and/or apartment. University staff is authorized to enter without notice upon proper identification to protect health, safety, or welfare of individuals and to prevent or minimize damage to university property.

3. Lockouts

Residents of Founders and Lincoln Residence Hall are eligible for assistance with lock outs through their area front desks (Monday-Friday from 8am-Midnight) or an RA on Call. Residents of the apartment and townhouse areas are eligible for assistance with lock outs through either the Central Residence Life Office (Monday-Friday 8:30am-6:30pm) or an RA on Call. A resident must show or verify identification before being provided access to their living space. Lockout keys must be returned within an hour or you will be charged for a re-core of your keys. Three lockouts requiring assistance are free each semester; residents needing assistance more than five times will be charged $50 for each additional lockout. Fees are charged to student accounts at the end of each semester or at the time of checkout.

4. Tornadoes and Severe Storms

In the event of a tornado or severe storm, please take shelter immediately. Do not take shelter in your car. Do not go outside to watch the storm. Storms and tornadoes are quick and unpredictable. You are expected to cooperate with all Residence Life Office staff and University Police instructions. Be aware and helpful to mobility impaired residents and children who may need assistance.

Familiarize yourself with the evacuation plan pertinent to the campus area in which you live or are visiting. For reference, please refer to the UIS Disaster-Reference webpage.

In the Apartments: If you hear the siren, please evacuate to the PAC tunnel, where you will receive more information. If time does not permit, please seek a downstairs bathroom. In many East Campus Apartments, you will need to set up a plan with your downstairs neighbors in advance if you wish to use this option.

In the Residence Halls: If you hear the siren, please go to the first floor residential wings, enter a bathroom, face the wall and kneel with your arms covering your head. Keep stairwell, lobby access and room doors closed.

In the Housing Commons: The concourses at Brookens, PAC, and HSB serve as the central University Emergency Shelter.

5. Fire Alarm Response

In the Apartments and Townhouses: All fire alarms must be reported to the University Police. For emergency reports only, the number to call is 6-7777. The non-emergency police telephone number is 6-6690. If not yet activated, pull the nearest alarm box. Should the fire alarm in your apartment activate, you must report the location and the nature of the alarm (i.e. smoke from cooking, grease fire, steam from the shower) to the police.

In Founders and Lincoln Residence Hall: If not yet activated, pull the nearest alarm box. When exiting the building, stay calm and proceed immediately to the nearest exit. DO NOT use the elevator. Be sure to know an alternate route if the nearest exit is blocked. Wear shoes and dress for the weather since you may be outdoors for a long period of time. Take your keys because your room will be locked when you return. Bring a towel to cover your face in case there is smoke. Stay at least 50 feet away from the building. Only re-enter the building after the alarm has been turned off and you have been instructed to do so. During fire drills or alarms, individuals who fail to evacuate are subject to University disciplinary action and fines.

6. Long-term Evacuation of Campus Housing

In the case of long term displacement from your space, please see our website for more information. <http://www.uis.edu/residencelife>.

7. Heating

Residents must keep the heat in their living unit at a sufficient level at all times to prevent freezing of water pipes. Damage caused by failure to adequately heat a living unit will be charged to the residents. Do not turn your fan to the "on" position. This constantly brings in the outside air and will prevent the unit from shutting off when the temperature reaches the set point. This will cause overheating and may also cause a breakdown of the HVAC. All heating and cooling systems run more efficiently when left at one constant temperature. During the colder months, no heating system should ever be turned off entirely. We remind you that heaters are forbidden.

No matter how high the thermostat is set, the HVAC system will not heat above 75 degrees Fahrenheit. Similarly, the HVAC will not cool the apartment in summer to lower than 65 degrees.

In Sunflower and unrenovated Clover Courts, the baseboard heaters provide a supplemental heat source to your main furnace in the event of severe cold or heating emergencies. Be cautious when using your baseboard heaters, as they can get very hot and may ignite upholstery, clothing and other flammable items/substances that are too near them.

In Lincoln and Founders Residence Halls, the bedrooms have their own adjustable temperature controls, but the system can only produce heat in the heating season and cold air in the cooling season. Do not block the HVAC access panel or vents.

From mid-October through April it will be necessary to heat your living unit, otherwise the water pipes might freeze and cause considerable damage. Make sure that when outside temperatures are 55 degrees Fahrenheit or colder are predicted that the controls of your thermostat are set to “heat” and “auto” before doing so. Make sure that you have suitable clothing for cold weather.

Extremely cold temperatures will decrease the effectiveness of the heating system. If the temperature is close or below freezing the HVAC may not get to temperatures above 65. It is still functioning and keeping the temperature to reasonable conditions.

9. Snow and Ice Removal

The Residence Life Office employs a crew of student snow shovelers, or alternatively a private snow removal company, to clear snow and ice from the decks, stairs and sidewalks in the housing areas. When a snowfall or icing occurs, the snow crew will begin clearing paths as quickly as possible and to the best of their ability. They will always address the apartments in which residents with mobility and vision impairments reside first.

10. High Winds

During high winds, Sunflower Court and Clover Court residents should close and lock all windows to prevent damage, including broken cranks, arms and shattered windows.

11. Earthquake

Springfield feels the seismic activity of the New Madrid fault. In an earthquake, get under a strong piece of furniture such as a desk or bed to avoid falling objects. If you are outside, stay outside in an open area. Do not try to enter or leave buildings during a tremor.

Department of Residence Life: Family Housing Guide

Any damage to University property caused by children or other non-lease holding members of the house will be charged to the resident who is the leaseholder.

Children are not permitted to play in or near the garbage dumpsters, air conditioning units, or any other area deemed "unsafe for play" by the Residence Life Office.

4. Children's Outdoor Toys

Children's toys should be stored inside the apartment. Children's bicycles must be stored in the apartment or on bicycle racks. Children's swimming pools cannot exceed six feet in diameter or 12 inches in height, and should be hard sided or be deflated. Swimming pools should be stored empty against the building when not in use. Items that appear abandoned may be removed and disposed of by maintenance personnel. Chalking is prohibited on campus buildings and facilities.

5. Playground

A children's playground and a basketball/paved recreational area are located in Sunflower Court. The basketball court is provided for both children and adults. Basketball hours are from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00p.m. Residents are solely responsible for the supervision of their children, and the proper use of the equipment at these sites. The University does not supervise these locations, and will not assume any liability at these sites. Children should not be permitted to play or leave toys and sporting equipment in the parking lot or inner courtyard drive (fire lane).

6. Curfew

Please note that statutory curfew for a person under age 17 years is 11:00 p.m. Sunday-Thursday, and Midnight on Friday and Saturday in the City of Springfield and on the UIS campus.

7. House sitters, Babysitters and Caretakers

House sitters are not allowed, as this is a violation of key and security policies. Residents should notify the Residence Life Office of any extended stays outside of the campus space.

Children under 14 years of age may not be left unattended on campus premises, and no child may be left unattended under any circumstances which would endanger the health and safety of the child. Parents may not leave their children with another caretaker on campus for more than 24 hours without written notice to the Residence Life Office. Such notice should include the name of the babysitter, contact information for the parent, and the parent's expected date of return. Babysitters may borrow an apartment key, in the case of a lockout, if the resident parent has so authorized in writing (with signature) that they wish the Residence Life Office to allow it. Babysitters will be required to show picture ID.

8. Child Abuse and Neglect

Public Act 97-0711, a revision of the "Abused and Neglected Child Reporting Act" (ANCRA), mandates that all personnel of higher education institutions report cases of suspected child abuse or neglect to the Department of Children and Family Services at 1-800-25ABUSE.

Mandated Reporting: We are required to report unattended children or children who are in situations beyond their level of maturity and physical or mental abilities to appropriate authorities
