

proceedings may be initiated and carried out within the academic program of the teaching faculty in which the alleged offense occurred. If you are alleged to have committed plagiarism, your instructor may refuse to grade the assignment and record it as no credit. Penalties may include no credit (i.e., failure) in the course as well as recommendation for disciplinary probation, suspension, or dismissal from the class, program, or UIS.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

The dates and times of registration are published each semester and summer term in the course schedule. The course schedule also lists the current courses and gives up-to-date information on registration procedures, tuition and fees, and relevant deadlines. Information in course schedules supersedes similar information in this catalog.

Tuition and fees are subject to change. You should check with the Office of Admissions and Records to verify amounts.*

1 percent per month assessed on billed and unpaid balance.*

Tuition and fees are assessed at the time of registration and are subject to change without notice. Current procedures and due dates are published in the course schedule.

UIS reserves the right at the time of registration to require full payment from students who have failed in the past to pay tuition and fees on time. Students with outstanding accounts are not permitted to register for subsequent semesters or to receive transcripts and are not eligible to receive a degree. Bills are mailed to students who advance register. A late charge of 1 percent per month is assessed on the billed and unpaid balance.

You will be responsible for paying all attorneys' fees and other reasonable collection costs and charges necessary for the collection of any tuition, fees, and/or other charges assessed by UIS that are not paid when due.

You are also responsible for charges for all courses that are not officially dropped with the Office of Admissions and Records by the dates specified in the course schedule for tuition and fee adjustment. Courses must be officially dropped by web, phone, or in person at the Office of Admissions and Records. Questions regarding billing or payment should be directed to the Accounting Office.

FEES

Mandatory Fees A student activity fee of $105 per semester for on-campus, full-time students ($52.50 per semester for a part-time student) is part of your bill. Peoria students are charged $15 per semester for the activity fee. The fee supports such activities as films, art exhibits, dances, visiting lecturers, and access to recreational facilities. A noninstructional facility fee of $26 is assessed to on-campus, full-time students ($13 for part-time students). A gymnasium fee of $18 per semester for on-campus, full-time students ($9 for part-time students) supports the payment of the capital debt and maintenance costs of the facility. All on-campus students are charged the intercollegiate athletics fee of $72 per semester for on-campus, full-time students ($6 per credit hour for part-time students). Fees are subject to change without notice.

Other Fees If you are not in compliance with the immunization or assessment requirements, you will be assessed a $25 per semester processing charge.

Course Charges Charges for laboratory, art, and other classes requiring use of disposable supplies and materials are indicated in each course schedule and are in addition to regular tuition and fees.

Online Fee There is an online course fee of $15 per credit hour. The only other on-campus mandatory fees assessed to students enrolled in online courses only is the intercollegiate athletics fee.

Late Registration Fee A late registration fee of $5 per course is charged any student who adds courses after the add/drop period for any active semester or term. See the appropriate course schedule for specific dates.

U OF I RESIDENCY STATUS FOR ADMISSION AND ASSESSMENT OF TUITION

General The University of Illinois is a land-grant institution assisted by funding from Illinois tax revenue. As a state tax-assisted institution, the University of Illinois (with some exceptions) extends preference in admission and tuition to residents of the state of Illinois—that is, to students whose circumstances conform to the university definition of resident status outlined below.

The University of Illinois' definition of the term "resident" may be different from the definitions developed by other, non-university agencies. Thus, a person who is an Illinois resident for tax or voting purposes, for example, is not necessarily a resident for University of Illinois tuition and admission purposes. The university's definition of resident status applies both to payment of tuition and admission to the University of Illinois.

Principal elements that determine residency are domicile in Illinois and actions that evidence the intent to make Illinois the person's permanent residence for a period of 12 months prior to the first day of class. A person has but one domicile at any time. Mere phys-
