The United States Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service requires the University of Illinois at Springfield to determine your financial eligibility. An I-20AB or IAP-66 (for the issuance of a visa) cannot be issued until this form is completed to our satisfaction and returned to this office.

Refer to the information on education costs to determine the amount of money you will need for study at the University of Illinois at Springfield. You should also indicate how you will meet your expenses for each subsequent year. In computing expenses, remember Student (F-1) and Exchange Visitor (J-1) visa holders will not be authorized to work except in extraordinary circumstances. Therefore, you should not expect part-time or summer employment to be a significant means of support.

If you plan to bring your spouse and/or children, you must certify a proportionately larger amount: $3,300 per year for your spouse and $2,200 for each child. Note that your spouse may obtain permission to work only if you hold a J-1 Exchange Visitor visa and then only for his/her own and any children's support. Spouses of F-1 Student visa holders are not permitted to work under any circumstances.

A special note to J-1 students and their J-2 dependents: as of September 1, 1994, the United States Information Agency (USIA) requires that all persons in J status have adequate health insurance while in the United States. Minimum coverage shall provide: medical benefits of at least $50,000 per accident or illness; repatriation of remains in the amount of $7,500; expenses associated with the medical evacuation of the exchange visitor to his/her home country in the amount of $10,000; and a deductible not to exceed $500 per accident or illness. Willful failure to maintain adequate health insurance may result in program termination.

MINIMUM ESTIMATED EXPENSES FOR ONE YEAR (Fall, Spring, Summer) 2008 – 2009

	Undergraduate	Graduate
Tuition (Fall/Spring/Summer)	$17456.00	$18640.00

Incidentals (transportation, clothing, personal, etc.)	$3300.00	$3300.00

Mandatory Health Insurance	$586.00	$586.00
TOTAL:	$30,927.00	$32,111.00

(You must also submit a letter explaining your summer activities: i.e., will you be returning home to your country or remaining in the United States.)
