Rec Tip of the Week

Drink tart cherry juice to help with muscle soreness.

A study in the Journal of Agricultural & Food Chemistry suggests that drinking 1 cup of watermelon or cherry juice pre-workout can help prevent muscle soreness following the session. It seems to be the antioxidant properties of these juices that help deliver oxygen to the muscle cells, which can speed up recovery time.