CAMPUS SENATE AY2009/2010
RESOLUTION 39-4

Changes to the UIS Campus Senate Bylaws
Article VI. Section 2. and Section 2. C. 2)

ARTICLE VI COMMITTEES AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SENATE

2. Standing Committees of the Campus Senate

Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised will govern all Committee proceedings unless expressly modified by formally adopted Committee Bylaws which are consistent with the Senate Constitution and Bylaws.

Committees shall elect chairs annually. During the spring semester, each committee with continuing and newly appointed members in place shall elect a chair from the ranks of faculty for the upcoming academic year.

No Ex Officio member of a Senate Committee shall have voting privileges unless otherwise expressly provided in these bylaws.

C. Committee On Admissions, Recruitment, And Retention

2) Membership and Terms

The voting membership of the Committee shall consist of seven tenured faculty members, at least four of whom currently serve or have served as Department Chair within the past 3 years, each from separate Departments or academic units, with two from the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and one from each of the other degree-granting Colleges, and two faculty at large, except that no more than three faculty shall be from one college. Among these faculty there shall be at least one faculty from a graduate, an undergraduate and an on-line degree program. Additional voting members shall consist of one undergraduate student and one graduate student from separate colleges, and one academic professional appointed by APAC whose daily work responsibilities include student instruction and other activities directly related to student teaching and learning. Ex-officio members are the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs; the Registrar; the Director of Admissions; the Director of the Office of Financial Assistance; the Associate Vice Chancellor for Undergraduate Education; the Associate Vice Chancellor for Graduate Education; and the Director of the Capital Scholars Honor Program or their designees; a Dean or associate Dean of one of the degree granting colleges; and a designee of the office of International Student Services.

Faculty members shall be appointed to three-year terms and may be reappointed at the discretion of the Campus Senate. So that the faculty appointments of the initial committee will be staggered, two shall have one-year terms, two shall have two-year terms, and three shall have three-year terms.
