

Theatre Advising Guide

UIS Communication Department

If you want to work in theatre, you should choose from among these classes when offered:

THE/COM 273 Principles of Acting
THE/COM 274 Introduction to Theatre
THE/COM 308 Principles of Theatre Design
THE/COM 322 Playing Shakespeare
THE/COM 373 Intermediate Acting
THE/COM 475 Theatre Practicum (working on or in a UIS Theatre production)
THE/COM 476 Directing for the Theatre

We also recommend:

COM 210 Media Writing
COM 236 Introduction to Digital Media
COM 337 Digital Media: Print
COM 338 Digital Media: Web
COM 362 Introduction to Public Relations
COM 448 Advertising
COM 457 Scripting, Producing, Directing
COM 462 Writing for Public Relations

Note:

All of the above options are classes you may use to fulfill your Communication emphasis hours (16) or non-emphasis hours (8). Please consult the UIS Guide to Programs, the Communication Department website (www.uis.edu/com), your adviser or the department's orange advising sheet to make sure you fulfill all department and university requirements as well.

11/2008