Dr. Brooks D. Simpson is ASU Foundation Professor of History at Arizona State University, where he teaches in the College of Letters and Sciences as well as Barrett, The Honors College. He specializes in nineteenth century American history, especially the Civil War and Reconstruction period, as well as the American presidency. Among his 15 books are The Civil War in the East: Struggle, Stalemate, and Victory (2011); Ulysses S. Grant: Triumph over Adversity, 1822-1865 (2000); The Reconstruction Presidents (1998, paperback 2009), and The Political Education of Henry Adams (1996). In addition, he is the author of more than 45 published articles and book chapters and has made numerous television appearances on C-SPAN, PBS and other channels. He received his Ph.D. in history from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1989.