

Brian D. Schwartz, Adjunct Professor, J.D., Creighton University, 1994.

Research Interests: Research publications and conference presentations have been in a variety of areas related to school law, including homeschooling, student constitutional rights, GLBT student rights, search and seizure and special education.

Brian Schwartz has practiced school law for over 15 years, mainly as General Counsel to the Illinois Principals Association. He is the author of two books: “Finding Middle Ground in K-12 Education,” and “The Law of Homeschooling.” Brian is the past chair of the Illinois State Bar Association’s Education Law Council and has served on the Board of Directors of the Education Law Association.

Teaching: Brian teaches courses in the area of school law and also teaches several law-related classes in the Master Teacher Leadership program.