General Education Council
Lower Division Course Approval Criteria
Category: Visual, Creative, and Performing Arts

To seek general education course approval, faculty or programs must complete two forms:

- UIS New Course Proposal and Change Form
- General Education Checklist

Forms are available at: http://www.uis.edu/generaleducation/curriculum/facultyforms.html

Forms and a syllabus for the course should be submitted to the appropriate college curriculum committee, then to the dean, and finally to the Office of Undergraduate Education (PAC525) for distribution to the General Education Council. For questions, please contact Dr. Karen Moranski, Office of Undergraduate Education (206-7413 or kmora1@uis.edu). The recommended UIS Syllabus Template is available at: http://www.uis.edu/generaleducation/curriculum/facultyforms.html

General Information on Lower Division General Education

Below is a checklist of criteria that faculty teaching lower division courses should meet:

Lower Division Gen. Ed. Requirements

- My course is 100 or 200 level and provides introductory information or overviews rather than knowledge that is highly specific to a particular discipline or degree program;
- My course is a 3-hour course, except for composition, laboratory science, and some math courses, which may be 4 hours.
- My course is available and accessible to all students, regardless of major, and a student’s prior knowledge of the topic or discipline(s) addressed in the course is not assumed.
- My course meets selected Baccalaureate Learning Outcomes for Goals 1-4, and, whenever possible, selected outcomes for Goal 5, Engaged Citizenship. (Baccalaureate Goals and Learning Outcomes are listed below.)
- My course meets selected category outcomes, listed below.

The General Education Council will use the above criteria in making determinations about the appropriateness of the course for the general education curriculum. For the GEC to make a positive determination, the above requirements should be visible in the syllabus. On the General Education Checklist, you will be asked to indicate that your course meets the above criteria. Feel free to use space on that form to explain how the proposed course meets these criteria.

f. Distinguishing the possibilities and limitations of social change.

Category Overview

The goals of the Visual, Creative, and Performing Arts general education requirement are:

- to introduce and develop the understanding that artists rely on precise and sometimes culturally specific methods of working in order to create products or works of art that move people; and
- to foster the idea that working in and witnessing the fine and performing arts is vital in helping people better understand themselves and the world in which we live.

Criteria

Required learning objectives

Visual, Creative, and Performing Arts courses should help students meet as many as possible of the following learning objectives:

- Demonstrate awareness that different contexts and/or world views produce different human creations;
- Understand how choosing materials, techniques or styles communicate meaning;
- Interpret, evaluate, and describe aesthetic experiences and creative activities;
- Develop or recognize basic technique and an understanding of the basic form of different historical and contemporary movements and genres;
- Make specific and clear their artistic ideas, thoughts, and feelings.

Preferred course features

Visual, Creative, and Performing Arts courses are encouraged that help students:

- Analyze the values, cultural context, and aesthetic qualities of creative expression and engage in the creative art making process;
- Employ appropriate use of information technology and computer applications;
- Recognize the social responsibility of the individual within a larger community;
- Practice awareness of and respect for the diversity of cultures and peoples in this country and in the world.
