To students:

- The DARS system may place a course in an emphasis area that does not reflect your course of study. You may petition to have the course moved from one area to another in DARS. See your advisor about this.
- You must have at least 48 hours of credit at the 300- or 400-level to earn a B.A. Therefore, up to 12 of your 60 upper division hours can come from 100- or 200-level classes. You may need to petition to have these courses applied towards upper-division requirements. See your advisor about this.
