

Scholarships for Elementary Education Students

Application Deadline: December 4, 2009

The Nancy Larson Foundation is proud to sponsor three $1,000 scholarships

Who is Nancy Larson?

Nancy Larson is the author of the nationally successful Saxon Math K-4 programs and the Nancy Larson Science program for grades 1-3. Ms. Larson started Nancy Larson Publishers, Inc. in 2003 with the goal of providing engaging and challenging programs in content areas beyond mathematics. Nancy's dedication to education and to motivating and inspiring young educators led her to form the Nancy Larson Foundation in 2006. Ever grateful for her personal success, she is dedicated to giving back in a way that promotes education in America.

Who may apply for the scholarship?

Students currently enrolled and classified as an undergraduate juniors, seniors or graduate students with a declared major in elementary education or its equivalent.

How do I apply?

Submit a statement of 500 words or less answering "Describe three traits you possess that you believe will make them a successful teacher," official transcripts, resume showing employment history, activities and community service. Entries will be accepted online at www.nancylarsonfoundation.org or by mail www.nancylarsonfoundation.org/NLFScholarshipForm.pdf to PO Box 6, Old Lyme, CT 06371. For more information and official rules, please visit the foundation website or contact:

Ellen Fenty-Morrison
Nancy Larson Foundation
eller@NancyLarsonFoundation.org
203-389-9298

How will I know if I've been awarded the scholarship?

Recipients will be selected by independent judges and recipients will be announced on or shortly after December 10, 2009. Scholarship checks will be mailed to the winners' universities/colleges by December 20, 2009.