The Academic Professional Advisory Committee is pleased to sponsor Technology Day at UIS on Friday, June 14.

The event runs from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. and is open to the university community. The purpose of the event is to showcase UIS staff
and the technology they use in their work.

From 9 to 12 noon, there will be two concurrent activities.
Feel free to drop by anytime:

Exhibits in the Main Concourse near the Food Emporium - Thirteen exhibits will include demonstrations of technology at work at UIS, including voice-activated software, online magazine design,
Internet radio, digital video, DVD production,

accessibility software,
and more. Stop by the exhibits anytime between 9 and noon.

Seminars in Room C/D -

Five short seminars with Tips and Tricks for commonly used software applications will be held in PAC C/D. There is no need to register; just walk-in.

9:00 Getting Organized with Outlook: Tips and Tricks

9:35 Using Image Composer for Front Page users

10:10 Scanning and Editing Images for the Web

10:45 Finding and Validating Information on the Internet

11:20 Microsoft Word: 30 Tips in 30 Minutes

Luncheon with Guest Speaker - noon to 1 p.m.

We'll rope off an area in the Food Emporium for anyone who wants to lunch with us. You can purchase a boxed lunch in advance (see below) to help move things along quickly.

Around 12:15, UIS Provost Michael Cheney will make a few remarks about technology at UIS, and then we'll have a special guest speaker.

Chris Young, a noted photographer with the State Journal-Register, will talk about photography, the newspaper business, and the ways technology has impacted those pursuits.

Feel free to sit in.

Ice Cream Social - 1 p.m. to 2 p.m.

Mingle and talk tech with your colleagues on the Patio outside the Food Emporium (if the weather is bad, we'll move inside).

We'll have ice cream and techno music. Rumor has it there are a few door prizes for those attending.

We hope you can join us to celebrate our employees and our use of technology.

This event is made possible by the Academic Professional Advisory Committee. The event is open to the entire university community.

If you would like order a boxed lunch (see menu below)
please reply to this email by June 7, and we'll make arrangements.
(Sorry, we do not have funds to provide a free lunch.)

Boxed Lunch includes:

Smoked Turkey Club Croissant

or

Vegetarian Sandwich

and

Potato Chips
