UNIVERSITY BILL 12-3

LIMIT HOURS REQUIRED IN UNDERGRADUATE MAJOR

(As Amended on Second Reading by the Faculty Senate on March 4, 1983)

Whereas, it is a mandate of Sangamon State University to offer a liberal, practical, professional and innovative educational experience to its students:

Be it resolved that:

A. the maximum amount of credit hours for a major shall not exceed 36 hours,
B. the Curriculum Committee is empowered to allow exceptions to the 36 hour maximum for majors if programs demonstrate compelling reasons for an exception,
C. students be encouraged to take electives outside their majors.
