INSTRUCTIONS (Please read carefully):

The Memorial Nursing Scholarship is for UIS Pre-Nursing students applying as a First Year Freshmen for the 2019-2020 Academic Year. The scholarships are competitive and applicants will be evaluated on a combination of ACT/SAT scores, high school GPA, and scholarship essay questions.

Complete the entire application and forward it to the UIS Office of Admissions with the completed short essay questions from the following page. The essay questions must be answered by the student and should identify their career goals and participation in various leadership and service experiences.

To qualify for this scholarship, students must have completed the 2019-2020 FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), available after October 1, 2018, selecting UIS as a college choice (Title IV code 009333). Undergraduate students must be enrolled in no fewer than six (6) required credit hours during any semester to be eligible for federal aid. The student must be enrolled in the appropriate Pre-Nursing Pathway courses and those courses must count toward the student's degree. The student must also be in compliance with the Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy. Additionally, the student must have completed the Institutional Scholarship application process with the UIS Office of Financial Assistance as well as this application.
