Coal City High School's Kellee Mahaffay, Plainfield South High's Bianca Sanchez and junior college transfers and teammates Colleen Gentile and Samantha Krilich will play volleyball at the University of Illinois Springfield.

Gentile and Krilich played at Prairie State College, a junior college in Chicago Heights. Krilich, an all-around player and outside hitter, was a voted to the National Junior Collegiate Athletic Association all-american second team. The Thornton Fractional South High graduate was a two year college starter. Gentile, a Thornton Fractional North product, was an all-region setter at Prairie State.

Mahaffay, who plays multiple positions, was a three-year starter at Coal City where she led the team in kills for two straight years. Sanchez started for three seasons at Plainfield South and plays in the back row.

MacMurray duo named to academic team

JACKSONVILLE — A pair of White Hall North Greene High School graduates who played on the MacMurray College softball team have been named to the St. Louis Intercollegiate Athletic Conference All-Academic team.

Katylain Northcutt, a sophomore nursing major, and Sara Coultas, a junior physical education major, earned SLIAC All-Academic honors. Coultas also was an all-academic choice in basketball.
