

Name: _____ Date: _____ Advisor: _____

Guidelines for Advising the Educational Psychology Concentration (Fall 2012 Catalog to Present)

Core Requirements (8 credit hours) Credits Term

PSY 301	Orientation and Entrance Assessment	0
Required in first semester of upper division enrollment
PSY 302	Research Methods in Psychology	4
PSY 471	Senior Seminar	4
Prerequisites for PSY 471: PSY 302 + all core concentration courses
Total hours of PSY core:		8

Core Concentration Courses (16 credit hours) Credits Term

PSY 327	Educational Psychology (required)	4
---------	--	---	--

Choose three courses from the following choices:

PSY 311 Cognitive Psychology, PSY 313 Critical Thinking, PSY 321 Life-Span Developmental Psychology, PSY 322 Child Development, PSY 323 Adolescence, PSY 324 Exceptional Child, PSY 326 Family Psychology, PSY 413 Psychology of Learning and Memory, PSY 416 Psychology of Motivation, PSY 457 Behavior Modification, PSY 458 Psychological Tests and Measurement. (TEP Program for Elementary Education requires PSY 322, PSY 324, and PSY 327.)

PSY _____	_____
PSY _____	_____
PSY _____	_____
Total hours of PSY core concentration:		16

Relevant Psychology Electives (12 credit hours) Credits Term

Any 300- or 400-level psychology course at UIS can be used toward this requirement.

PSY _____	_____
PSY _____	_____
PSY _____	_____
Total hours of PSY relevant electives:		12

ECCE + Speaker Series Requirements (10 credit hours) Credits Term

Students must fulfill their ECCE requirements by selecting courses from at least 2 of the 3 available ECCE categories including U.S. Communities, Global Awareness and Engagement Experience. TEP minors only need to complete the U.S. Communities or Global Awareness because student teaching satisfies the Engagement Experience requirement.

_____	USC, GA, or EE
_____	USC, GA, or EE
_____	USC, GA, or EE
UNI 301	Speaker Series	1
Total hours of ECCE requirements:

Additional Upper Level Coursework (if necessary) Credits Term

Students need to complete at least 48 hours of upper-division credit in order to graduate with a BA in PSY. Thirty-six (36) of these upper-division hours should be completed through PSY major requirements. The remaining 12 credit hours could be completed by selecting upper-division coursework to fulfill ECCE requirements and/or with additional upper-division PSY or non-PSY coursework.

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
Total hours of additional upper-level coursework:

Note: Students must complete a minimum total of 120 combined lower-division and upper-division credit hours and have a minimum GPA of 2.0 to graduate.