Student Life is in the process of creating a comprehensive leadership program centered on the Social Change Model of Leadership Development. The Social Change Model incorporates seven “C”s of Social Change – collaboration, consciousness of self, commitment, congruence, common purpose, controversy with civility, and citizenship. Each of these values is divided into three headings: individual values, group process values, and community/societal values. This program will consist of multiple opportunities to explore these three categories and the values associated with each.
