Student Government Association Resolution 19 of AY 11-12

No Fees Prior to Opening of the Student Union

By Student Trustee John Tienken

WHEREAS, The Student Government Association represents student interests and concerns;

WHEREAS, Student Fees and the financial security of Students are among the top priorities of the Student Government Association, and must always be top of mind;

WHEREAS, the construction of a Student Union can only be financed by Student Fees, and Private donations because of Illinois State Law,

WHEREAS, the Student Government Association should try to keep fees as low as possible and encourage University Administration to strongly consider the financial burden of students;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the UIS SGA will not support the implementation of student union fees prior to the opening of the Student Union.
