Student Government Association Resolution 10 (AY 12-13)

Creating the Staff Position of Web and Social Media Manager for the Student Government Association

By Treasurer Jamaal Hollins and Trustee John Tienken

WHEREAS, The Student Government Association has a duty to communicate to UIS students, and provide timely information of current business and initiatives.

WHEREAS, The current Student Government Association website and social media has fluctuated in quality through the years, and our outreach depends on maintaining the student government website as well as all social media content.

WHEREAS, In order to maintain the Student Government Association website as well as date social media content, the Student Government Association should create a designated position to fulfill these duties and improve our communication to the student body.

WHEREAS, The SGA has the funds necessary to support the hiring of this position.

THEREFORE IT BE RESOLVED, That the Student Government Association allocate up to $400 towards the hiring of a Web and Social Media Manager for the upcoming spring semester, hired through the Office of Student Life with the consultation of the Student Government Association President.
