Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct Agreement serves as a guideline for how individuals are expected to behave when participating in UIS Sport Club sponsored or endorsed activities. All club members participating in an event sponsored or endorsed by UIS are representing their club and the University at all times. Sport club members are expected to represent themselves and their club with sportsmanship-like and moral behavior before, during, and after any sport club activity. Examples of inappropriate behaviors include, but are not limited to, the following:

Participants shall not:

- Engage in illegal use, possession, or distribution of drugs or illegal substances, except for medical purposes, while traveling, competing, socializing, and/or using facilities including lodging spaces
- Consume alcohol while traveling (from the time the team leaves the campus to the time it returns), competing, or as a spectator
- Violate any traffic violations when traveling to competitions
- Engage in hazing, harassing, or threatening actions which intentionally subject another person to offensive physical contact, physical injury, property damage, or which specifically and intentionally insult another person in his or her immediate presence with words or gestures when a reasonable person would expect that such an act or actions would provoke a violent response
- Violate any UIS or host university rules or policies
- Enter into any agreements on behalf of the university

Violations of the Code of Conduct Agreement may result in one or more of the following (this list is not all-inclusive):

- Loss of club funding
- Removal of offending team members and restriction from future participation
