INSTRUCTIONS (Read this section carefully):

Complete the entire application and forward it to the UIS Office of Financial Assistance with a brief personal narrative. Narratives must be written by the student and should identify how participation in the Global Experience Program will enhance the student's academic program. The format of the narrative should be a brief (approximately two-page) essay.

To qualify for this scholarship, students must have completed the 2022-2023 FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), available after October 1, 2021, selecting UIS as a college choice (Title IV code 009333). Undergraduate students must be enrolled in no fewer than six (6) required credit hours during any semester and graduate students must be enrolled in no fewer than five (5) required credit hours for fall/spring study or three (3) required credit hours for the summer semester. Regardless of academic level, the student must be registered in the appropriate Global Experience Program course and that course must count toward the student's degree. (Students planning to use the scholarship funds for the summer 2022 semester who will participate in the May 2022 graduation ceremony must check with the UIS Office of Financial Assistance before completing this scholarship application to see if they are eligible to apply.) The student must also be in compliance with the Standards of Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy. Additionally, the student must have completed the application process with the UIS Office of Study Away Programs and the completion of that process must be certified by the Director of Study Away Programs on this application (refer to the certification box on the reverse side).

Application with the UIS Office of Study Away Programs requires ALL of the following documents: 1) a 2022-2023 Global Experience Program Application Form 2) an official academic transcript 3) two letters of recommendation (form provided) 4) a Financial Agreement form for your specified trip, and 5) a signed copy of the Acknowledgment of Risks and Release of Responsibility form. These forms may be obtained by contacting the UIS Office of Study Away Programs at (217) 206-8319 or by visiting them in BRK 482.

Submit this completed application and narrative by February 15, 2022 to the following address:

Office of Financial Assistance
University of Illinois at Springfield
One University Plaza, MS UHB 1015
Springfield, IL 62703.
