The U.S. Department of Education's records indicate that you have one or more student loans and/or TEACH grant discharged due to Total and Permanent Disability (TPD).

- Please submit a physician's certification SIGNED by a qualified physician stating that you have the ability to engage in substantial gainful employment.
- Please submit a letter from the U.S. Department of Education that confirms that your student loans and/or TEACH grant were discharged due to Total and Permanent Disability (TPD).
- Please sign the Borrower Acknowledgment below, stating that you understand that any new student loans after your TPD discharge cannot be discharged for any present impairment.

Section B – Loan Discharged due to Disability Verification

I have attached the following documentation (please check):

- Copy of certification from a qualified physician stating that you have the ability to engage in substantial gainful employment.
- Copy of a letter from the U.S. Department of Education confirming your student loans were discharged due to Total and Permanent Disability.
- Requested documentation is on file with your office from a previous school year.

Section C – Borrower Acknowledgment

I, _____, understand that new federal student aid loans cannot be later discharged for any present impairment unless it deteriorates so that I am again totally and permanently disabled. I also understand that I must complete the Borrower Acknowledgment each time I receive a new student loan and/or TEACH grant.
