Leadership

Miguel Valente

Miguel, a Mexican-American, first-generation college student and National Guard member, became involved with MVC, DKE, and SGA almost immediately upon coming to UIS. He also held an on-campus job as a VA Work Study and even became president elect of DKE while still stationed in Texas. Miguel currently interns at Tammy Duckworth's Office, has been accepted to the MPA program at UIS and will participate in GPSI in the fall.

Connections

Jocelyn Nelson

Jocelyn Nelson came to UIS in 2017 as a member of Leadership for Life and was a record setting student athlete at UIS. Jocelyn took on roles in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. and Greek Affairs Board and completed her degree in three years. Jocelyn continued at UIS in the Masters of Human Services program, serving as the Graduate Assistant for Underrepresented Students. She graduated in May and has applied for doctoral programs in Clinical Psychology.

Self-Awareness

Joshua Rowzee

Josh, a first-generation college student from Evanston, has worked for Campus Recreation during the entirety of his undergrad experience, winning Student Employee of the Year as a junior. As a senior, Josh was Student Activities Committee Chair and BSU President. During his undergrad experience, he was also Student Intern for the UIS Men's Basketball Team for three years. Josh graduated in May and will be coming back to UIS for his masters in Educational Leadership.

Inclusion

Jacqueline Guzman

Jackie was a first-generation college student that immediately became involved in UIS' Music Department, singing in the choir and playing clarinet. As she progressed in her college career, she became the Cultural Awareness Chair for Gamma Phi Omega. Within this position, she put on a number of programs in collaboration with the UIS Diversity Center, her proudest one being Gender Across Borders. She graduated in May with a degree in Individualized Psychology and is awaiting acceptance into the Human Development Counseling Program, and placement in the GPSI program.
