

Medical Laboratory Science Degree Plan

This articulation agreement stems from the Transfer Admission Guarantee Agreement between the University of Illinois Springfield (UIS) and Lincoln Land Community College (LLCC), serving as a program-specific pathway for LLCC students intending to complete the Bachelor of Science in Medical Laboratory Science (MLS) degree program at UIS.

The Bachelor of Science in Medical Laboratory Science (MLS) program consists of two distinct academic phases: The Pre-Professional Phase and the Professional Phase. During the Pre-Professional Phase, the first two years of the four-year major, students should follow the Associate in Science and select coursework outlined in this degree plan. During the Professional Phase, the final two years of the four-year major, students complete the MLS core courses and obtain clinical experience during practicum courses. The Professional Phase is the NAACLS-accredited Medical Laboratory Science program. All students must complete a secondary admissions process and be accepted by the MLS Program before they may begin the Professional Phase.

The MLS Program admits students to the Professional Phase in fall semesters only. To be eligible for admission to the MLS Professional Phase, students must:

- Successfully complete all Pre-Professional Phase courses (C- or higher) prior to entering the Professional Phase
- Earn a minimum 2.5 GPA in MLS prerequisite courses

Transfer Admission Guarantee

LLCC students will complete a minimum of 24 credit hours of coursework at LLCC before applying to the TAG Agreement with a cumulative GPA of 2.0 out of 4.0 on all transferrable course work taken at LLCC. TAG students are guaranteed admission to UIS as juniors and will have the admission application fee waived.
