

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS
SPRINGFIELD

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES REGULATIONS AND PROCEDURES

I. Statement of Intent

The University of Illinois Springfield is committed to providing a safe and enjoyable venue for educational, cultural, public, entertainment, athletic and social events. Accordingly, the sale, delivery, possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages in or on any property controlled by the University of Illinois Springfield is strictly prohibited, except as provided in these regulations. The regulations implement the University of Illinois Alcoholic Beverages Management Policy ("AMP") adopted by the Board of Trustees on January 15, 2009, as may be amended from time to time. The AMP implements Illinois Public Act 95-0847.

II. Application

- A. These regulations apply whenever alcoholic beverages are served or sold at UIS-sponsored events held off campus.
- B. These regulations apply whenever alcoholic beverages are served or sold in buildings or property owned or controlled by the Board of Trustees, including leased premises, except private living spaces.
- C. Section VII applies only to possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages in private living spaces.

III. Authority

- A. Permission to include alcoholic beverages at UIS events and/or on University property must be approved by the Office of the Chancellor. Both the venue and the event must be approved. The Chancellor has designated the Associate Chancellor for Public Affairs to oversee matters related to alcoholic beverages.
- B. Food Services has the right of first refusal for all alcohol service or sales, whether on or off campus. Food Services will maintain a list of approved caterers in the event it declines to provide service at an event.

IV. Procedures

A unit seeking to host an event involving the sale, delivery, possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages on university property or at an off-campus university event must submit an application to the Associate Chancellor for Public Affairs. Units are encourage to allow a minimum of three (3) weeks to process requests.

To apply to sell alcohol, please fill out Form A.

To apply to serve (no sales) alcohol, please fill out Form B.

Arrangements may not be finalized until the approval has been obtained in writing. There will be no standing approvals for events or venues; however, a series of events may be submitted for approval at the same time. Provision of alcohol at university events and/or on university property is a privilege, not a right. A request may be denied for any event or at any time for any reason deemed appropriate by the University.

V. Criteria

Requests to host an event involving the sale, delivery, possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages will be reviewed for compliance with the following criteria:

- A. Whether the event is a student activity or student-related activity;
- B. The anticipated attendees at the event are primarily individuals over the age of 21;
- C. The sale or service of alcoholic beverages will be handled by Campus Food Services or an approved caterer with the requisite liquor license, insurance and TIPS/BASSETT-trained staff;
- D. The host unit / event operator will have the ability to prevent the sale and distribution of alcoholic liquors to individuals under the age of 21;
- E. The host unit / event operator will have the ability to ensure that the sale or serving of alcoholic liquors and the demeanor of the participants are in accordance with state law, university policies and campus regulations;
- F. The physical setting of the event is conducive to control of liquor sales and distribution, including preventing participants from removing alcoholic beverages from the venue and/or providing their own alcoholic beverages to the venue;
- G. The event is generally consistent with the mission and values of the University.

VI. Additional Guidance

A. Unit Responsibility

The host unit is responsible to the University for the demeanor of the participants and invited guests. Approval for future requests may be adversely impacted if unruly behavior, or other behavior, occurs that violates these regulations or any applicable law, regulation or policy.

B. Participant and Guest Responsibility

The University assumes no responsibility or liability for individuals or organizations conducting events at which alcoholic beverages are served or consumed. Individuals who choose to consume alcohol are responsible for their behavior and for following all applicable laws, policies and procedure. Violations of this policy may result in adverse employment action or student discipline.

- C. Venues. The following venues have been determined to be likely suitable for the sale or service of alcohol, depending on the nature of the event.
