

2015 Faculty Achievements

Dr. Kay McChesney
Social Work

Journal Article

“Successful Approaches to Ending Female Genital Cutting” Journal of Sociology and Social Welfare.

“Teaching Diversity: The Science You Need to Know to Explain Why Race is Not Biological” SAGE Open.

Refereed Paper

“Assessing Global Learning” with S. Schnebly and S. Borland – Presented at the Annual Conference of the Higher Learning Commission, Chicago, IL.

“How Implicit Bias and Color-Blind Racism Maintain Racial Inequality in the 21st Century” – Presented at the Wepner Symposium on the Lincoln Legacy and Contemporary Affairs, Springfield, IL.

“New Science Buttresses Conceptual Foundations of Anti-Racism” – Presented at the Annual Meeting of the Midwest Sociological Society, Kansas City, KS.