

JOIN A UIS MUSIC ENSEMBLE!

UIS Music Ensembles are comprised of students, faculty/staff, and community members. Musicians of all levels are welcome. Certain ensembles can earn course credit. “Join us!”

BAND The UIS Band includes woodwinds, brass, and percussion instruments. The Band performs concert band repertoire in a range of styles and genres. Multiple musicians per part. Mondays, 4-5:50pm. Bill Mitchell, director. MUS 105/305A.

CELLO CHOIR The UIS Cello Choir is a chamber group comprised only of cellists, performing a variety of works for cello ensemble. Rehearsal time, TBA. Jun Seo, director.

CHORUS The UIS Chorus brings students, faculty/staff and community members together in song. Singers learn and perform music from classical, popular, and world traditions. The Chorus collaborates on occasion with other local choruses and with the UIS Orchestra. Mondays, 6:30-8:30pm. See Tsai Chan, director. MUS 101/301.

FLUTE CHOIR The UIS Flute Choir is a chamber group comprised only of flutists, performing a variety of repertoire for flute ensemble. Mondays, 5:50-6:40pm. Abigail Walsh, director.

JAZZ ENSEMBLE The UIS Jazz Ensemble includes a variety of wind, brass, percussion and select string instruments performing a mix of jazz standards and newer compositions. Tuesdays, 5-6:30pm. Benjamin Nichols, director. MUS 105/305 D.

ORCHESTRA The UIS Orchestra is a symphony orchestra comprised of strings, winds, brass, and percussion instruments. The orchestra performs classical repertoire as well as orchestral music influenced by various world traditions. Thursdays, 5:40-7:30pm. Yona Stamatis, director. MUS 105/305 B.

*UIS Music Ensembles rehearse once a week and perform in various locations including Sangamon Auditorium and Studio Theatre.

Contact: music@uis.edu or (217) 206-6240

www.uis.edu/music/