Case Analysis Rubric

Date:
Rater:	Course:	Student:

TRAIT	Unacceptable	Acceptable	Exemplary	Score Issues	Does not recognize a problem or	Recognizes one or more key	Recognizes multiple problems in the mentions problems that are not	problems in the case.	case. Indicates some issues are more based on facts of the case		important than others and explains why
Perspectives	Does not recognize the	Considers the perspectives of	Clearly describes the unique perspectives of any characters in	individuals who are related to the	perspectives of multiple key the case	problems	characters.
Knowledge	Simply repeats facts listed in	Considers facts from the case and	Discusses facts of the case in case and does not discuss the	cites related knowledge from	relation to empirical and theoretical relevance of these facts	theoretical or empirical research	research and add knowledge from personal experience
Actions	No action proposed or proposes	More than one reasonable action	Proposed actions seem to deal with infeasible action(s)	proposed.	the most important issues Consequences	No positive and negative	Positive and negative	Consequences are tied to the issues consequences are identified	consequences for each action are	deemed most important.
		discussed		