

Instructor Name:

Section(s):

Number of Students:

Criteria (List Assignment)	Advanced (# of students)	Proficient	Basic	Unsatisfactory
Students understand and can apply the waves of feminism and the different types of feminists. A:
Students have knowledge of gender in a global context. A:
Students understand discourse, intersectionality and dichotomy. A:
Students have knowledge of women's participation in, contribution to, and transformation of areas of social life including culture, society, politics, economy, and religion. A:
Students have the ability to understand and analyze the texts and information critically. A:
Students have knowledge of institutionalized discrimination and violence against women. A:
Students can examine cultural assumptions about how gender, in interplay with ethnicity, race, social class, disability, and sexual orientation, constructs identity. A:
Students know the main social, economic, political, and psychological issues in contemporary women's lives, globally and locally. A:

1080 Instructors: Please submit your assessment with course syllabus and at least one test, quiz or assignment from the course designed to measure one or more criteria.