62% of residents ages 18 to 34 would recommend moving to the area. Higher than any other age group.

72% of parents think the quality of education their child receives at local schools is either excellent or good.

27% of respondents rate the state of the Sangamon County economy as excellent or good.

89% of residents believe growing downtown Springfield is important to Sangamon County’s economy.

84% of Sangamon County residents consider the area welcoming.

54% of Sangamon County residents say obesity is an extremely or very serious issue in the community.